

E0581, Emergency Operations for Tribal Governments

April 18-21, 2016 in Emmitsburg, MD

COURSE PARTICIPANTS NEEDED!

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is requesting your assistance in recruiting participants for a course designed specifically for Tribal members who have emergency management responsibilities, have already completed the Emergency Management Framework for Tribal Governments (E/L0580) course, and are interested in taking their skills to the next level to help protect their tribal members, lands and culture.

Emergency Management Operations for Tribal Governments (E0581) has been developed by FEMA training staff and representatives from tribal nations with focus on:

- Providing tribal governments with new skills and strategies for improving overall emergency operations
- Making tribal governments more capable and self-sufficient during emergency operations
- Promoting the integration of emergency operations across all functional agency lines
- Enhancing the tribes' overall response for all emergencies, regardless of hazard, size, or complexity

The course includes many activities that help participants build even more skills for implementing successful emergency operations for their tribal community.

INTENDED AUDIENCE: tribal community response personnel, tribal emergency managers, tribal government department and agency heads, tribal government staff, and tribal leaders.

Emergency Management Operations for Tribal Governments (E0581) is being offered April 18-21, 2015 at the FEMA Emergency Management Institute (EMI) in Emmitsburg, MD. Please note that completion of E/L0580, Emergency Management Framework for Tribal Governments, is a mandatory prerequisite for this class. Your application must include the certificate date for the E/L0580 course.

All instruction, course materials, and housing are provided at no cost. Free transportation from the area airports to campus is also available. FEMA will reimburse participants for a 21-day pre-purchased nonrefundable ticket for round-trip transportation by common carrier (economy, coach class, or less). First class and business class airline tickets will not be reimbursed. If participants choose to drive to Emmitsburg, they will be reimbursed the current federal privately owned vehicle mileage rate not to exceed the allowable airfare cost. Participants staying on campus must purchase an on-campus meal ticket for approximately $130 that includes breakfast, lunch, dinner and morning/afternoon breaks for the week.

To enroll in the course, simply complete FEMA Form 119-25-1, Admissions Application (available online at www.training.fema.gov, Emergency Management Institute), sign it, get supervisory signature, and e-mail it to NETCAdmissions@fema.dhs.gov or fax it to EMI Admissions Office, 301-447-1658, no later than March 21, 2016. It is advisable to apply via e-mail AND fax to ensure you are registered by the deadline. NOTICE: You will be required to enter a FEMA Student Identification Number (SID) in Block #3 on your application. If you don't already have an SID number, please obtain an SID by going to <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid/>

If you have questions concerning the admissions process please contact the NETC Admissions Office at 301-447-1035.

If you have questions regarding the course content please contact Katie Hirt at katie.hirt@fema.dhs.gov, or 301-447-1164.