

Oklahoma Native American
EMS Association
"ONAEMSA"

The Oklahoma Native American EMS Association is sponsoring an EMR Training in the month of April 2014. It is a 72 hour course and will be divided into three days for three consecutive weeks with April 23 designated as the skills testing day. After completion of the EMR Training each participant is responsible to go online to take the test and pass to get certified. The course hours will be 8:00 am to 5:00 pm daily. The course schedule is as follows:

April 7, 8, 9 (all Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday)
April 14, 15, 16
April 21, 22, 23

The training site is the Cherokee Nation EMS Facility, Tahlequah, OK and the address is Cherokee Nation EMS, 22114 S. Bald Hill Rd., Tahlequah, OK 74464. The instructors will be Mark Bighorse, Martin Webb and Justin Leatherwood, all with the Cherokee Nation EMS.

The training is free to ONAEMSA members. If you are not a member, I have attached the membership form which explains the levels and costs. Send the membership application and fees to the name and address on the form. Class size is limited to 20 on a first come first serve basis. If you plan on attending or sending anyone to the EMR Training submit names to Melvenia Domebo at the email address below. (Please let me know if you sent in the membership application and fee or are in the process when you submit your name for attendance)

You will be responsible for your own travel, lodging and Per Diem. (Lunch is on your own) For a list of hotels in Tahlequah, you could Google hotels in Tahlequah, OK. The closest hotel to the training site, which is approximately one (1) mile, is the Best Western. It is a nice hotel and the government rate is $79.00.

Should you have any questions feel free to contact any of the Board Members listed below.
